Plague at Athens

C 430 BC

Nehemiah went once more to Jerusalem & was shocked by what he saw.

Having discovered that a place was furnished in the Temple for TOBIAH, the Ammonite by ELIASHIB the priest, Nehemiah threw the furniture of TOBIAH out of the room and commanded the place be punished. The paying of Tithes had been neglected; vehemently reinstated the levy. The Sabbath had been desecrated in Jerusalem by foreign traders. He forbade them to do any business within or outside the walls of Jerusalem.

He vehemently confronted the issue of marriages with foreigners.
